the Ohio Legislature. Mr. Coombe, on leave, presented the following petition from sundry citizens of Knox county: Whereas, destruction very great, by dogs among the sheep of late, and danger that they will do more, As they have often heretofore. Requires that something should be done To stop the rascals and their fun: We therefore of your honors pray, That you'll enact without delay, A law that shall impose a tax, On dogs, or on their owners' backs, Of such amount as may suffice, And we'll forever and a day, Whom so inclined, devoutly pray.

Said petition was read and referred to the poetical gentleman from Miami, (Mr. Morris.)

PROGRESS.

Ex Governor Davis, in his recent address on Commerce before the Mercantile Library Association of this city stated the following interesting facts: In 1790, the population of the United States was about four millions. In 1840, the population was nearly eighteen millions. In 1790, the entire population west of the Alleghany mountains was about one hundred thousand. In 1800, it was six and a half millions. In 1870, the enrolled tonnage of the United States was 204,998 tons. In 1843, the amount was 2,158,603 tons. With what gigantic strides the nation has increased in numbers and wealth!

A voyage round the world no longer excites attention. The power of steam is exerting a mighty influence in its use in navigating the western rivers of our country, and in our intercourse with our transatlantic brethren. Steam now escorts the stately ship to the ocean, and welcomes her return, standing ready to assist her into port. Steam, applied to roads, is fast throwing the streets of Boston—and its wharves and warehouses are enlarging.

GEORGE PETER BERRY, Adm'r.
 February 17, 1845.

There is nothing purer than honesty, nothing sweeter than charity—nothing warmer than love, nothing richer than wisdom, nothing brighter than virtue, and nothing more steadfast than faith. These united in one mind, form the purest, the sweetest, the warmest, the richest, the brightest, and the most steadfast happiness.

'This is what I call cutting one's best friends,' said the hog to the butcher. 'I was only trying to find where you live,' replied the knife.

Place no confidence in imaginary prosperity—never venture beyond your depth—live within your means—think of making a living, and not a fortune—look ahead—take care of the rainy days—be prudent—be temperate—be honest—be humble.

By compassion, we make others' mis-ery our own; and by relieving them we relieve ourselves also.

Notice.

IS hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between G. D. & O. P. Evans is by mutual consent this day dissolved. All persons knowing themelves indebted to said firm will please call on G. D. Evans at their old stand and settle up.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, the Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, &c.

IMPORTANT TO ALL THOSE AFFLICTED WITH DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND BREAST.

SEVEN THIRTY-ONE CASES OF OBSTINATE PULMONARY CONSUMPTION CURED IN ONE YEAR!

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The great American Remedy for Lung Complaints, and all Affections of the Respiratory Organs.

We do not wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, and we sincerely pledge ourselves to make no assertions as to the virtues of this medicine, and to hold out no hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant.

We ask the attention of the candid to a few considerations.

Nature in every part of her works, has left indelible marks of adaptation and design.

The constitution of the animals and vegetables of the world, is such that they could not endure the cold of the frigid zone, and vice versa.

In regard to disease and its cure, the adaptation is no less striking.

The Moss of Iceland, the Wild Cherry and Pine of all Northern latitudes (and "Dr. Wistar's Balsam," is a compound chemical extract from these) have long been celebrated for complaints prevalent only in cold climates.

Indeed the most distinguished medical men have availed themselves of the virtues of every country antidotes for its own peculiar diseases.

Consumption in its confirmed and incipient stages, Coughs, Asthma, and Liver Complaint, form by far the most fatal class of diseases known to our land. Yet these may be cured by means of the simple yet powerful remedies (named above) and which are scattered by a beneficent Providence, wherever these maladies prevail.

It is the case of Thomas Cozens, of Haddonfield, N. J., is related by himself; and that all may know its entire truth the statement is sworn to before a Justice of the Peace.

HADDONFIELD, N. J. April 20, 1843.

On or about the 13th day of Dec. 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the Liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or something inwardly, which relieved me a little, but caused me to throw up a quantity of offensive matter and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this, I applied to a physician, but he said he could do little for me except give some Mercury Pills, which refused to take, feeling satisfied they could do me no good many other remedies were then pronounced by my wife and friends, and none did me any good, and the discharge of blood and corruption still continued every few days, and at last became so offensive I could scarcely breathe. I was seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much blood than I had done before, and my disease continued in this way, still growing worse until February, when all hope of my recovery was given up, and my friends all thought I would die with a galloping consumption. At this moment when my life was apparently drawing near a close, I heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and got a bottle, which relieved me immediately, all my pains were removed, my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, [which is a Carpenter] and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

Witness: I am acquainted with Mr. Thomas Cozens, and having seen him during his illness, I think the above statement entitled to full credit.

SAMUEL H. BORROUGHS.

Gloucester county, SS.

Personally came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being fully informed according to law, said the above statement in all things is true.

THOMAS COZENS.

Affirmed before me on the 20th day of April 1844.

We publish no fictitious statements. Another remarkable instance of the curative properties of Dr. Wistar's Balsam. This case is reported to us by Messrs. Joslin & Rowe, highly respectable Druggists and Physicians, Newark Ohio.

Burlington, Licking Co., O., Dec. 1, 1843.

Messrs. Joslin & Rowe—About 5 years ago, Mrs. Alvina was attacked with a violent cough in the chest, and attended with symptoms of approaching consumption. During the interval from that time to some time in February last, she has been treated by eminent physicians with only partial relief of the most urgent symptoms. About one year ago, she caught a most violent cold, which seated upon the lungs, producing an alarming aggravation of all her previous symptoms. Her physician was sent for, and despite his best efforts she began rapidly to sink under this disease. Cough, expectoration, hectic, together with night sweats, much reduced her complete exhaustion. In February last, her attending Physician, desiring her case altogether hopeless, a council was called and after deliberating on her case unanimously pronounced her to be beyond the reach of medical aid, and pressed their opinion that she could survive but a short time, one or two weeks at farthest. She was at this time so irrevocably confined to her bed, and scarcely able to articulate, except in a whisper. Her daily paroxysms of coughing, and so severe were they, that we did expect every moment would be the last. It was at this last extremity that we happened to obtain a pamphlet, describing Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, as applicable to lung affections. I immediately sent to you and procured a bottle, and commenced its use at evening by giving her one teaspoon full, and such was its ultimate effect, that after taking five bottles, she was, contrary to all expectations of her physicians, and every one who knew her, entirely restored to health; and since last summer, has done the entire work of her family. After the late attack of Mrs. Wimer, our youngest child, then at the breast, was taken down, and rapidly sinking with the same symptoms as its mother, we were, disposed to make trial of it for the child, and it was attended with the same perfect success.

The above statement can be attested by one physician as well as our neighbors and equal talents, who saw Mrs. Wimer during the course of her sickness. Very truly yours, &c.

JOHN WIMER.
